

Sadvritta & the concept of social wellbeing

By Chayanika (Asst. Professor, GCU)

- Sadvritta means following good habits and good conducts in life.
- Sadvritta is useful for Mental Health, Physical Health, and Social Behaviour
- Sadvritta give the about knowledge about “what to do, what should not to do and also “how to live”
- Sadvritta originates from two words “Sad” means good and “Vritta” means conduct or behaviour or habits includes in our daily regimen
- Sadvritta plays key role in the maintenance of health and prevention of diseases
- Sadvritta are applicable to people of all age groups, at all times and at all places
- Sadvritta are regarded as one of the measures to prevent various types of diseases
- It also plays an important role in personal cleanness of body & mind
- It includes simple things like –
 - ❖ Keeping your body and mind clean.
 - ❖ Controlling bad habits.
 - ❖ Respecting others.
 - ❖ Eating, sleeping, and living in a disciplined way.

❑ Types of Sadvritta

1. Vyavaharika sadvritta (Ethical/Social codes of conduct : how you behave with others)
2. Samajika sadvritta (social codes of conduct : following social rules and responsibilities)
3. Manasika sadvritta (mental codes of conduct : keeping the mind calm and positive)
4. Dharmika sadvritta (Moral codes of conduct : following truth, honesty and kindness)
5. Sharirika sadvritta (Physical codes of conduct : keeping body clean, hygiene, healthy lifestyle)

1. Vyavaharika sadvritta (Ethical codes of conduct)

- Always speak the truth. Try to speak at the proper time with words which are beneficial , limited , sweet & meaningful
- Do not sleep too long nor stay awake for a long time in the night
- Do not sleep on the bed that are not comfortable

2. Samajika sadvritta (social codes of conduct)

- Be friendly to all living beings , pacify the anger, help the poor, be truthful, peaceful, and tolerated of others harsh words & deeds of others
- Keep a smile on your face and should begin the conversation first. Always respect guests and show hospitality towards them
- Always remain in the company of teachers, elderly person and successful person and always give respect and serve them
- Should not have relationship with women, friends and servants of bad conduct. Always remember do not oppose good people .

3. Manasika Sadvritta (Mental codes of conduct)

- One should not speak ill of noble persons and preceptors
- Should be self – controlled and virtuous
- Should always concentrate on the qualities of peaceful life and should be the remover of the causes of attachment and aversion.
- One should timely speak useful, measured , sweet and meaningful words

4. Dharmika Sadvritta (Moral codes of conduct)

- Should offer hospitality to guests. , offer Pinda (rice balls) to forefathers
- One should not tell lies and should not take other's possessions
- Should not point out defects of others and should not try to know other's secret

5. Sharirika Sadvritta (Physical codes of conduct)

- One should bath twice a day, and one should clean his excretory passage and feet frequently.
- Cutting of hair , shaving and nail cutting should be done .
- One should always wear untorn clothes, should be cheerful. And use flowers and fragnance.
- The attire should be gentle and style of hair should be as commonly in practice.